SITUATION GROWING BETTER EVERY DAY

Unsettled Weather Continues With Spasmodic Showers.

DEATH RATE GROWING LESS

Authorities Believe that October Will See the Fever Eradicated and Quarantines Raised, and that New Orleans Will Have Large Fall Trade.

New Orleans, Sept. 30.—With no deaths occurring over night and with a very small number of cases reaching the marine hospital office during the forenoon, there was promise today of another encouraging fever report. Otherwise there was little change in the situation.

Past Assistant Surgeon Green left today for Port Gibson, Miss., acting under orders from Washington. Two cases have occurred at Port Gibson, and a number at Hamburg, not far away, and Dr. Greene will probably give his attention to both, though the situation has so much improved here that Dr. White is perhaps able to spare some men to go to other infected points.

The weather continued unsettled here today with spasmodic showers, but the low record of new cases and deaths during the preceding 24 hours has had a most encouraging effect on the public mind, the belief being that if the rate of improvement is kept up, October will witness a general relaxation of quarantine lines and give a great impulse to business. For nearly three months now country people from Mississippi and Louisiana have been kept away from New Orleans, and it is expected there will be a great rush of them here the moment the bars are lifted.

There are now under treatment here only 261 cases, less than at any time since the fever got headway, and with the decrease in new cases during the past four days that number will show further depreciation next week.

Much improvement is shown in the frame of mind of the Italians at Pointe Celeste in Plaquemines parish, and the fever there is now responding to treatment. For a time the indications kept Italians with arms handy and threatened death to the doctors and inspectors, but former Congressman Wilkinson, who owned the plantation, has been among his employes, they have yielded to his advice and the sick are accepting treatment.

The Emergency hospitals at Tallulah have been closed and more of the nurses are leaving there. When Dr. Tichenor first went to Tallulah he was unable to mkae any headway, because there was almost universal skepticism as to the mosquito theory. The result of the work of Dr. Esdorf and Cassaignac has made everybody in the town a believer now.

Four nurses have been engaged here to go to Hamburg, Miss., where the fever is severe and the people in great distress. They were employed by the Mississippi board of health. With the rapid improvement both in the city and state many nurses are now available for duty, whereas a month ago they were difficul to obtain.

Dr. Corput, after a further investigation at Baton Rouge, expresses the opinion that there will be little spread of the infection there.

Baton Rouge has a modern water service and comparatively few cisterns and Dr. Corput says he has found exceedingly few stegomyia in the town. Though infected, Baton Rouge maintains her quarantine against New Orleans, and other infected points, New Orleans, however, is open to all the surrounding territory.

The board of trade here has appointed a committee and will ask all the commercial bodies to do likewise to take up in a joint conference the question of formulating plans for the early removal of all cisterns from the city.

Delegates from the local car men's association leave today with a brass band to attend the convention of the Amalgamated Association of Street and Electric Railway Employes at Chicago. They are to make an effort to have the next convention of the car men held in New Orleans, and are armed with opinions of sanitarians and other data to show that New Orleans has probably had her last visitation of yellow fever.

TO BOYCOTT BRITISH GOODS.

Monster Meeing By Bengal Is to Protest Against Partition.

Calcutta, Sept. 30.—Fifty thousand Bengalis assembled at the temple of Kaligh have sworn by the Goddess Kali to boycott British goods as a protest against the partition of the province of Bengal.

The administrative work of the province according to the views of the home and Indian governments have grown to such unweildy proportions as to necessitate a division of the labor, hence the partition of the province into two lieutenant-governorships. The Bengalis are intensely resentful at what they characterize an attempt to split the population and impair the Bengalis nationality. At scores of meetings throughout Bengal the people have pledged themselves to support the boycott, which has received the sanction of the priests.

The scene at the temple of Kalighat, the greatest in Bengal, was striking when the immense assemblage took the oath, "in the holy presence of the Goddess Kali, not to use foreign goods, buy articles in foreign shops when available in native shops ,or employ foreigners on any work that can be done by our countrymen." The high priest then placed a mystic vermillion symbol on the forehead of each of those who took the oath.

CANNIBALS HAVE FEAST.

Killed Two Natives of Mallicolo Island and Ate Them

Victoria, B. C., Sept. 30.—News of a cannibal feast by blacks on Mallicolo were received yesterday by the Miowera. Two natives of Moskelyn island were trading when they were waylaid near the Mallicolo by cannibals. The men were slaughtered and their bodies carried to a coast village, at which place they were opened as game and prepared for a feast.

The bodies were placed in a native canoe and as the murderers were leaving they incurred the suspicion of M. Vigourez, a French trader. The natives told him they had killed some pigs and the Frenchman, believing their story, allowed them to go.

It subseqpuently transpired that several tribes were assembled and a feast of human flesh was held.

While settlers learned of this and under pressure, the natives admitted they had roasted the bodies and devoured the arms and legs of the unfortunate men.

Swindler Arrested in Chicago.

Chicago, Sept. 30.—Geo. R. Moore, known to the police under three different names, was arrested yesterday on a charge of larceny and obtaining money under false pretenses. The scheme adopted by him, the police declare, is ingenius, and had been used used in the past few years. Moore would obtain employment from one of the department stores and in that way learned the names of the patrons of the store, who had charge of the accounts and amount of goods usually bought by them during the months. He would call at their homes and state that he had come to collect a bill that had been past due. He succeeded in mulcting many patrons out of hundreds of dollars.

Immigration Convention to Meet.

Chattanooga, Tenn., Sept. 30.—The local committee on attendance for the approaching conference on immigration and quarantine to be held in this city on Nov. 9-10, is in receipt of the following letter from Congressman Oscar W. Underwood, of Birmingham, Ala.: "For many years in congress I have been fighting for limited immigration. I think it is a question of very great importance to the country and I am very glad, indeed, to know that there will be a conference by the people of the south next November on the question. I hope and expect to be in Chattanooga at the time, if something unforseen above not occur, and if I am there will be glad to take part in the discussion of the question."

OUR NEW YORK WEEKLY LETTER

By RENE DEVERAUX.

It requires but a few crisp typical New York Fall days to bring forth on the avenue, in hotel foyers, shops and restaurants such an array of smartly gowned women as almost to bewilder one with their charm of contrasting fashions. Certainly as many colors are to be seen as there are in the autumn foliage, but fortunately one point is distinctly noticeable, and that is that the general fashionable color tones tend toward the subdued rather than the brilliant shades which almost startled one at the beginning of last season.

Among the matinee crowds which always throng Fifth avenue and Broadway in the neighborhood of the Rialto one would single out the different shades of plum for their richness of color and appropriateness for afternoon frocks. This shade, unquestionably the newest, is seen in its greatest beauty in the medium weight broadcloths, which perhaps tailor best after all. All the shades of wine, from the deep crimson to a shade a trifle pinker than cerise, are popular, the lighter shades in the soft henriettas, cashmeres and chiffon cloths being extensively used for house gowns.

There is distinct style in small invisible checks, in blue and green particularly attractive in modified redingote and long severely tailored coat suits so becoming to tall women, but quite as many boleros and Etons are seen on the street here and in many exclusive shops.

There is no time when these natty little jacket suits seem more charming than the early Fall, for it is then that the tailor made girl is seen in her greatest glory. When the season for wraps rolls around, however, many of a suit's best points are lost. Particularly is this true this season, for almost invariably skirts are untrimmed, and the distinctive features are in effective collars, waistcoats, trimmings, smart buttons and becoming belts and girdles. On the other hand, the long coat is frequently sufficiently heavy to be worn without a wrap over neckpiece and a smart little [illegible] underneath giving additional warmth.

Unscrupulous arbiters of fashion reckoned unwisely when they foretold the passing of the plaited skirt. As a matter of fact, the plaited skirt will be with us for at least a season longer. Skirts are not so universally plaited all around perhaps as formerly, but are varied now and then with fitted side yokes terminating in a flat panel down the front with a box plaited back. Often in such models fullness from the yoke is formed by quite small tucks, and frequently this portion of the skirt is cut circular, giving a pretty flare at the bottom. In the making of successful circular skirts most experienced tailors often come to grief. These skirts invariably sag after having been worn a few times, and the weave of the cloth employed is unquestionably responsible for many such defects.

An extremely modish trimming for the dressier tailor frocks is white broadcloth, either finished with rows of very narrow braid or with applied embroidered motifs or band effects. Applied collars and smart little waistcoat effects are produced by the introduction of white broadcloth, narrow soutache braid stitched on crosswise softening the white and adding to its serviceability. On many imported suits both panne velvet and white broadcloth are beautifully combined, and tiny vests and straps are fastened with modish bullet buttons in gun metal and exquisite Dresden and cloisonne designs. On the bodice of a gown of a rich wine shade were glass buttons exactly matching in color, which sparkled with unusual brilliancy, and on a blue cloth suit with white broadcloth vest were gun metal buttons with silver centers. Some of the handsomer buttons are brought out with adjustable fastenings, making it possible to use them for more than one purpose.

Dainty little chemisettes, with deep cuffs to match, give a delightful feminine touch to both street and house gowns. In order to wear these a last season's frock may be easily cut in a short V or a round neck effect. The prettiest chemisettes are fastened in the back, the collar being attached by narrow beading or cut in one piece. Where a gown is fashioned a trifle low at the throat these lingerie effects add a certain freshness to the appearance—an essential feature of a well groomed woman. Chemisettes and cuffs, handmade or of less expensive workmanship, embroidered and tucked, are brought out just ready to slip into the gown, changing its entire appearance in a moment's time.

Hats extremely tilted are the vogue this season, and upon the cachepeigne, or high bandeau, most of the trimming is piled. The trimming for these bandeaux, however, is noticeably light and airy, frequently of tulle put on in billowy clouds and caught down with a bow of velvet ribbon loops on one side. Generally the outside of such hats are comparatively simple, elaboration being confined to the bandeau trimming.

One sees an occasional hat almost covered with a superb bird with outstretched wings, the tail drooping over the hair, or a chic little round velvet shape with a wreath of velvet clematis or orchids around the crown. Very large wings are used on the more practical hats, and particularly stylish they are with their pointed ends. Ostrich feathers, of course, are worn in profusion.

Tulle ruches are seen on very dressy white hats to be worn with the all white theater frock and evening coat, and sometimes a fluffy tulle boa and charming little muff to match are brought out to be worn with such hats.

Long soft crape scarfs, flower strewn with orchids, sweet peas or sprays of buttercups are more than ever worn over the hair and around the throat under the evening wrap. Some of these have fascinating borders in corresponding solid tints. Lace mantillas in black also have an undeniable charm when worn over the hair. Quaint little silk shawls embroidered and fringed are a pretty evening accessory, and many a young woman will find one at the bottom of grandmother's trunk in the garret. Silk manufacturers, however, had a happy inspiration when they evolved a way to reproduce them this season in many soft shades and weaves.

President Leaves Sagamore Hill.

Oyster Bay, L. I., Sept. 30.—President Roosevelt spent the last day of his summer sojourn at Sagamore Hill in preparation for his departure for Washington. After devoting a couple of hours to his official correspondence he passed the remainder of the day about the house and grounds giving directions as to their care. The president and Mrs. Roosevelt and their children will leave for Washington tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock. The train is scheduled to arrive at Washington at 6.15.

CARTER FIGHTS TO HOLD THE MONEY

Government Trying to Confiscate $600,000.

DEFENDANT IS CROSS-EXAMINED

Captain Carter Endeavors to Show that the Money Belongs to His Father-in-Law and that He Was Only an Agent.

Chicago, Sept. 30.—The cross-examination of former Captain O. M Carter, of the United States army, who is fighting to prevent the confiscation of the $600,000 seized at the time of his arrest on a charge of defrauding the government, was continued today before Special Examiner Richard W. Wyman.

The defendant has been on the witness stand continuously for six days, but there is no physical indication of the ordeal. Both sides are anxious to complete the taking of testimony at the earliest moment so the case may be returned to United States Judge Kohlsaat for a decision without unnecessary delay.

When the hearing was resumed Assistant United States Attorney Erwin questioned the defendant regarding several Wabash bonds purchased by Captain Carter and his father-in-law, R. F. Westcott, in New York, late in 1899, for $10,325.

The defendant said it was one of many purchases made by himself and his father-in-law. They were in partnership in several deals. In some cases the witness said he simply acted as the agent of Mr. Wescott. Later he made a full accounting to his father-in-law and received receipts for all the money paid out.

Woman Found Dead--Police Believe Man Failed to Keep Agreement.

St. Louis, Sept. 30.—The dead body of Mrs. Nellie West Long was found in a room at the Burlington hotel today. She had committed suicide with morphine.

Bert Grimm, her fiancee, who was with her, is under arrest, charged with having entered into a suicide compact with the woman. He declared that they were about to be married when he became suspicious that she had not obtained a divorce from Oliver Long. He confronted her at her home last night, and, he said, she suddenly cried out that she would commit sdicide, and ran from the house. To talk with her, he said, he took her to a hotel, and while absent from the room she took morphine. When he returned, he found her dead and gave the alarm.

The police express the belief that a suicide compact had been entered into and Grimm failed to take his own life.

Gamblers Arrested for Conspiracy.

Chicago, Sept. 30.—True bills were returned by the grand jury yesterday against the promoters and owners of the city of Traverse gambling boat charged with the keeping of a common gambling house and a conspiracy to do an illegal act. Some of the defendants must face the two indictments for keeping a common gambling house, and two indictments for conspiracy. Fourteen defendants were named in the bills. The evidence on the indictments were voted related to a single occasion when the boat was said to have been in Illinois waters when pools on horses were sold.

LUMBER MILL SOLD ON NEWNAN'S LAKE

TIMBER WAS SOLD ALSO

The Tract Involves Several Thousand Acres of Fine Cypress Timber, Which is Among the Best in the State—Deal May Mean Big Thing.

Another important deal has been made in this county which means the transfer of many thousands of dollars. J. A. Maultsby has sold to the Sea Coast Lumber Company, a rich corporation organized under the laws of the State of New York, the saw mill plant, together with all the timber rights of same, of the business situated on Newnan's lake, near Fairbanks.

This mill, while not as large as many, is one of the most modern and up-to-date in the State, cutting cypress timber exclusively. The plant, which is comparatively new, having been erected about two years ago, has a capacity of about fifteen thousand feet per day, and works a large number of hands at the mill and logging camps.

The consideration of this deal as filed in the office of the clerk of the circuit court provides a payment of "$10 cash and other valuable considerations," but it is known that the deal involved thousands, as the acreage in timber alone is extensive.

It is understood that operations at the mill will be unmolested, the new proprietors carrying the business on without the loss of a day.

Newnan's lake swamps abound in the finest kind of cypress, and there is no determining just what this purchase may mean to that section at this time.

Saved His Life.

J. W. Davenport, Wingo, Ky., writes, June 14, 1902: "I want to tell you I believe Ballard's Snow Liniment saved my life. I was under the treatment of two doctors, and they told me one of my lungs was entirely gone, and the other badly affected. I also had a lump on my side. I don't think that I could have lived over two months longer. I was induced by a friend to try Ballard's Snow Liniment. The first application gave me great relief; two fifty cent bottles cured me sound and well. It is a wonderful medicine and I recommend it to suffering humanity." Sold by W. M. Johnson.

Death of Miss Ennis.

Miss Daisy Ennis died at her home on East Arlington street Thursday morning, after an illness of several months with consumption, and was interred in Evergreen cemetery Thursday afternoon, Rev. S. B. Rogers of the First Baptist Church officiating. Deceased is survived by a mother and three sisters, to whom the sympathy of friends is extended.

Insomnia and Indigestion Cured.

"Last year I had a very severe attack of indigestion. I could not sleep at night and suffered most excruciating pains for three hours after each meal. I was troubled this way for about three months, when I used Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and received immediate relief," says John Dixon, Tullamore, Ontario, Canada. DOCKET WAS HEAVY.

Levy County Had Lots of Legal Business at the Term Just Closing.

From Friday's Daily Sun.

Notwithstanding that the docket of the circuit court of Levy county, both civil and criminal, has been larger the present term than for several years, the court is making fine progress and will succeed in disposing of many cases before the closing of the term. This congested condition of affairs was caused by the fact that at the spring term Judge Pinnell, who had a great deal of business with the court, was ill, and it became necessary to postpone many cases. These cases naturally took precedence at this term.

Only one week is provided for the fall term of the circuit court for Levy county, owing to the fact that time is limited, the fall term opening in Baker county, at Macclenny, Monday.

Solicitor Calhoun has been quite busy during the week in the grand jury room. He was ably represented in the circuit court room, however, by Judge Syd L. Carter, former State's Attorney, and one of the most competent lawyers in the State.

Members of the bar from Gainesville who have had occasion to attend the session of the Levy county circuit court state that the court is making excellent progress, having disposed of quite a number of cases. Among these were a few cases of selling liquor in a dry county.

The fall term of the court at Bronson must adjourn tomorrow night, as Circuit Judge Wills and Solicitor Calhoun must be in Macclenny Monday.

Alachua county has the advantage of the longest term in the circuit, since this is the last county in which a term is held.

Astonishing Incident.

It was, to all her friends, an astonishing incident that Mrs. I. B. Hunt of Lime Ridge, Wis., was cured of her dreadful sickness. "Doctors," she writes, "had given me up; friends were ready to bid me the last farewell; clouds of despair darkened my horizon, and I was a wreck on the shores of despondency, when I began to take Electric Bitters for my frightful stomach and liver complaint. To the astonishment of all, I was benefited at once and am now completely and miraculously restored to health. At all drug stores; price 50c; guaranteed.

BIG TURPENTINE DEAL.

Yearwood & McDonald of Melrose Have Sold Their Interests.

Papers have been filed with the clerk of the circuit court of this county transferring the immense naval stores interests of Yearwood & McDonald, Melrose, to the Melrose Manufacturing Company, the consideration being "$10 and other valuable considerations."

This is one of the largest and most important naval stores deals made in this county for some time, as Yearwood & McDonald were extensive operators. The deal comprises not only lands in Alachua, but in Putnam, Clay and Bradford counties as well, and in the aggregate embraces several thousand acres of fine round timber.

GINS ALL BUSY AT ALACHUA

Five Hundred Bales Reported Turned Out So Far.

650 BALES ARE IN STORAGE

Monteocha Ginner Has Turned Out Fifty-Five Bales So Far, but Expects to Gin One Hundred More—Crop Open in Field, but Labor Scarce.

The cotton season at Alachua seems to be at its heigth just now. All three gins of that town are busy, according to reports, and five hundred bales were turned out from the Alachua gins up to Wednesday of the present week.

The Alachua Cotton Warehouse Company has now in storage about six hundred and fifty bales of cotton, including a few bales left over from last year's crop.

Geo. W. Maines, who conducts a ginnery at Monteocha, was in Gainesville Friday. He is operating three gins, and reports that he has turned out so far this season fifty-five bales. He may possibly gin 100 bales more, making a total of 155 this year, against 226 last season.

Mr. Maines states that the cotton is about all open in the fields, and the farmers are now busy picking. The same report comes from the Alachua section. Pickers are very scarce, and some planters are offering as high as $1.25 per hundred for gathering, but find it impossible in many instances to secure labor at that price. The negroes, who comprise principally the cotton pickers, are offered better inducements in the saw mills and naval stores farms, where they prefer to work.

The condition of all crops has been more or less retarded by adverse weather conditions, but it is evident that cotton has suffered most.

Full of Tragic Meaning

Are these lines from J. H. Simmons of Casey, Ia. Think what might have resulted from his terrible cough if he had not taken the medicine about which he writes: "I had a fearful cough that disturbed my night's rest. I tried everything, but nothing would relieve it, until I took Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds, which completely cured me." Instantly relieves and permanently cures all throat and lung diseases; prevents grip and pneumonia. At all druggists; guaranteed; 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Cures Winter Cough.

J. E. Gover, 101 North Main street, Ottawa, Kan., writes: "Every fall it has been my wife's trouble to catch a severe cold, and therefore to cough all winter long. Last fall I got her a bottle of Horehound Syrup. She used it and has been able to sleep soundly all night long. Whenever the cough troubles her, two or three doses stop the cough, and she is able to be up and well." 25c, 50c and $1. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

Delivered Fine Sermon in Bowling Green, Kentucky.

NEXT WINTER'S PROGRAM

This Distinguished Divine Writes That He Has Used Precaution, and Has Selected Finest Program for Gainesville Ever Seen in Florida.

"One of the most eloquent, earnest and forceful sermons ever preached in this city was the one Rev. C. Stronse delivered at the State Street Methodist Church yesterday morning before a congregation that literally packed the main auditorium, the Sunday school rooms and the platform. It was forceful throughout—not a word or sentence that bordered on the mediocre—and was listened to intently by the large congregation in attendance. There is no sort of doubt of the ability of this young divine, and it is not to be wondered at that he has had such a potential influence in religion wherever he has been, and such a man always has a large following and exercises great influence."

Dr. Strouse writes a friend here that he expects to engage in evangelistical work in St. Paul, Minneapolis and New Jersey cities and Boston before returning to Gainesville, which will bring him here early in December.

Dr. Strouse concludes with the statement that he has used a great deal of precaution in selecting a Bible Conference and Chautauqua program, which will be the most thorough and complete Florida has ever had.

SCROFULA
FROM PARENT TO CHILD

The laws of heredity are invariable, and the diseased blood of parents is handed down to children in the form of Scrofula. Being thus deeply rooted nothing can reach the disease but a constitutional remedy. The very foundation of the blood is diseased, and until it is purified and made strong, those who are born with a scrofulous tendency cannot have the blessing of robust health.

Cleveland, O., 122 Brownell St.

I inherited Scrofula from my ancestry, and this means, of course, weak, impure blood and a run-down, debilitated condition of the system. Treatment of physicians did not do me anything like the good S. S. S. did last winter when I took it. It promotes appetite and digestion, gives strength and energy, builds up the general health in every way, and in addition to being an excellent blood purifier it adds to its success as a remedy for Scrofula. It did more for me than anything I have used, and with pleasure I recommend it. S. S. S. completely cured me of this blighting disease.

MRS. LOUISE COHEN,

S. S. S., the king of blood purifiers, is the medicine that is required, because it changes the quality of the blood by cleansing it of all poisons and impurities, building it up and strengthening the entire system. When S. S. S. has restored the blood to a healthy condition and forced out the scrofulous deposits, there is a sure return to health. No remedy has ever been found to equal this great vegetable preparation for the cure of all diseases arising from a diseased or impure blood supply. If you have Scrofula or any tendency that way write us all about your case and we will send you a book describing the disease and give, without charge, any medical advice you may need.

Some Fine Fruit.

W. P. Moseley, who owns a grove near Alachua Sink, brought to this city Thursday some specimens of as fine grapefruit as were ever grown in this section. The fruit, while not as large as some, is uniform in style, very even, sweet, and of delicious flavor. Mr. Moseley's crop is well matured, but he complains that he will be compelled to harvest it earlier than desired on account of some persons relieving the trees in his absence.

NEW PUBLIC LANDS TO BE OPENED SOON

WILL BE ENTERED OCTOBER 15

Indications are That There Will be a General Rush, as Inquiries Have Been Coming for Several Months. Land Fine for Rice and Sugar-Cane.

Register Robinson and Receiver Chubb of the United States land office have received notification from the general land office at Washington that on October 15th of the present year plats of the resurvey of margin of Lake Okechobee, Florida, in the following townships will be filed in the United States land office at Gainesville, and will be subject to homestead entries.

The plats as furnished by the general land office are as follows: 37 S., 34 E.; 37 S., 36 E.; 38 S., 36 E.; 37 S., 35 E.

These lands are among the most fertile and best adapted to the culture of sugar-cane and rice in the United States, and already indications are that there will be a big demand for them, as inquiries have been coming in the land office here for several months.

South Florida, especially the country bordering on and which has been drained from Lakes Okechobee and Kissimmee, is destined to become the leading sugar producing country of the United States, and probably of the world, in proportion to area. It will be remembered that for years since Lake Kissimmee and its tributaries were drained by the Disston Land Company, when millions of acres have been cultivated in sugar-cane and rice, the influx to that section has been steady and profitable, and the planters today of that section as a rule are prosperous and contented. The opening of this land in the Okechobee section means the same thing, and it is safe to say that within the next few years Florida will be supplying the markets of the world to a large extent with syrup, sugar and rice.

Some Seasonable Advice.

It may be a piece of superfluous advice to urge people at this season of the year to lay in a supply of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is almost sure to be needed before winter is over, and much more prompt and satisfactory results are obtained when taken as soon as a cold is contracted and before it has become settled in the system, which can only be done by keeping the remedy at hand. This remedy is so widely known and so altogether good that no one should hesitate about buying it in preference to any other. It is for sale by all druggists.

Sheriff Fennell and Deputy Granger are kept busy these days looking up the various offenders. They are very successful, too, and the law-breakers are getting pretty tired of trying to dodge them. Few counties in Florida have more faithful officers than Alachua.

Before Sheriff Pickett of Jacksonville had hardly breathed his last, a lot of office-seeking vultures were seeking after his place. The following from The Scientific American is well worth remembering: "If you are afraid of lightning, here is a very simple safeguard to remember: Simply put on your gum shoes or rubbers and then stand up so your clothes will not touch anything. Whether you are in doors or out of doors you are perfectly safe, for rubber is a non-conductor and you are perfectly insulated."

JAP SURGERY.

The Japanese are a wonderful people, and should they continue to advance for the next ten years as rapidly as they have in the past, will be the superiors of those to whom they are indebted for their first lessons in advancement in all branches.

At the meeting of the military surgeons of the United States, held in Detroit this week, Surgeon-General Szuki of the imperial Japanese navy, delivered an address, in which he told of the methods employed by the surgeons in the navy, which is of much interest:

"Much of our success in the treatment of wounds," said Dr. Szuki, "I ascribe to the fact that before every engagement I ordered each member of the crew to bathe and put on perfectly clean underclothing. In a great many shot wounds, fragments of clothing are carried into the body and our insistence upon clean underclothing prevented many cases of blood poisoning among our wounded.

"The vision of the men who fire the guns on a warship must necessarily be of the very best if their shoes are to count. Before every engagement the surgeons in the Japanese fleets examined carefully the eyes of all the gunners. Any of them found with slight impairment of vision were treated, and if the impairment was too grave to yield to immediate treatment, they were transferred to another station and their places filled by men whose eyes were perfect. And, too, during engagements every battery crew was supplied with water in which a one per cent solution of boracic acid had been mixed to wash out their eyes when they became affected by powder, smoke or dust. We also issued to every man in the fleet, before going into action, cotton with which to plug his ears and thereby prevent rupture of the ear drums by the concussion of the gun fire."

The men, he said, were always furnished warm clothing in the winter, and they never had a case of frost bite during all the time before Port Arthur, and in summer they were provided with straw hats to prevent sunstroke. His address showed the complete system adopted by the Japanese to be worthy of emulation by all the powers that desire to look after the best interests of "the man behind the gun," as well as the officer in command, whom he said gave orders from the compass bridge instead of the conning tower, as he could see better and was less liable to be hit from the flying pieces of steel.

LOCAL OPTION.

The recent elections in Putnam and Volusia counties on the question of local option has made no change in the standing, as Putnam county was carried by the saloon element, and Volusia county, which has been in the line of local prohibition, decided to remain there by a very good majority. Clay county will hold an election on October 3d and it is expected the prohibition people will carry the day.

From the present outlook it has the appearance of a few counties being added to the local option column before many months.

A majority of the counties of the State are now in the local option column, known as the "dry" column, as follows:

Dry—Alachua, Baker, Bradford, Calhoun, Columbia, Citrus, DeSoto, Hamilton, Hernando, Holmes, Jackson, Jefferson, LaFayette, Lake, Leon, Levy, Liberty, Manatee, Pasco, Polk, Sumter, Suwannee, Taylor, Volusia, Wakulla, Walton, Washington—27.

OUR CITY SCHOOLS.

On this morning the city schools of Gainesville were opened for the year with Professors Sheats and McBeath at their head, assisted by a competent corps of teachers that may be expected to give us better instruction in the city educational department than we have had for some years.

The people in the surrounding towns who have children in need of higher education than can be acquired in their home schools, should bear in mind that the schools of this city can fit them for entrance at the State University, where they can be admitted without further examination. Board can be obtained at a nominal cost and the tuition is small.

If you wish to find a first-class public school, come to the University High School, Gainesville.

FLORIDA COLLEGES.

With this week and next the higher educational institutions of the State will nearly all of them have opened their doors for the first semester of the school year, and judging from observation, the attendance at all of these places of learning will be larger than in years past. There are one or two new schools that will open with a very flattering prospect, and the older ones show healthy gains.

There are many people who are of the opinion that their children must be sent to some older schools to acquire an education, when it is often the case that the schools of smaller size devote more time to students while in their charge than the old established colleges.

There may be several excuses advanced for sending boys and girls to some of the established schools, being of the opinion that the discipline is more strict, and this may be true in regard to some of the older military schools; but if an education is desired, it can be had at the State University or State Female College, and the faculty at either one will compare with any of the schools in the South.

There are to be found in the Florida colleges instructors of experience in the best schools of the North and South, and if you are searching for a denominational institution in which to place your young ladies and gentlemen, they are to be found in Florida of the Presbyterian, Methodist, Baptist, etc., and all of them supplied with faculties that are calculated to make them a power along these lines in the matter of education.

Don't send your young people away when you can do as well at home.

THE CANNED GOODS.

The advantage the canned goods have over the fresh fruit and vegetables sent out to the markets of the world, will be in the fact that you can hold them until you get the price offered that will pay you a profit. They will keep as long in your hands as they will in the hands of the wholesaler.

Then there is another important feature of the canned goods you sell: There is no commission man to notify you that the goods arrived in poor condition and the market was glutted, so your consignment was a "dead duck." The purchaser will come to you for canned goods, and when once your reputation is established, all that is necessary to sell your product is to mention the brand.

When we stop to think of the large quantities of canned tomatoes, corn, tomato catsup, bottled pickles, etc., that are sent to Florida from the North, it is a wonder that this state of affairs should be allowed to continue as long as it has. All of these vegetables can be grown here with profit for putting up at home, and that is more than can be said regarding many shippers, who are in luck if they come out even.

On the East Coast some 40,000 crates of pineapples are shipped each year. If these same pines, or half of them, were allowed to get thoroughly ripe and then be canned, they would bring a fancy price in the markets of the North, East and West, and there would be no losses on account of a glutted market, for they would keep for an indefinite time and stand shipment to the remote markets, where they would outsell inferior brands.

NO RATE CONTROL.

It is currently reported that the President is now satisfied that Congress will not give effect to his desire to enlarge the powers of the Interstate Commerce Commission in the matter of enforcing its conclusions regarding the reasonableness of railway rates. And it seems quite evident that Congress will also balk on tariff regulations, and so two pet reforms that the President had set his heart on have come to naught already, unless all signs fail. This result surprises no careful student of the times and conditions. Such students have believed that in the final show-down in the game of supremacy played between government and the great capitalistic powers, the last, intrenched in railroads, trusts and tariffs, will win.

Railway legislation is to be limited to the matter of discrimination—a very important matter, by the way, for in its results it is the most vicious of all railway practices. But legislators have taxed their ingenuity many times in the past to prevent discrimination, but without avail, and there is but little reason for hope that they will be any more successful hereafter. Anti-discrimination legislation does not disturb railways at all; but the thought of rate control in any form by the government throws them into a fever.

...ALL CITY OWN LIGHTING PLANT?

...or Thomas Writes Strong Article Favoring Same.

...RE PEOPLE SHARE PROFITS

...Mayor Contends That Revenue ... Electric Light and Power Plant ...d be Sufficient to Pay Bonds and ...est at Maturity, if Owned by City.

...or Sun: My attention has been ... to two recent articles pub... in The Sun, evidently designed ...tify and confuse and mislead ...nds of the people of Gainesville ... subject of municipal ownership ...blic utilities. One of these ar... was a five-column, full page ...ing from a Denver, Colo., paper; ...other was an original communica... from somebody who was either ...med of it, or else feared that his ... appended to the article would of ...f go far to refute all the so-called ...ments he advanced therein. Both ...les bear the unmistakable ear... of the work of an attorney for ... company or corporation that had ...d a mighty good thing, but are ...ng to run it down for fear some ...er fellow might want it. The trick ...n old one—as old as human cupid... and conning; when, perhaps, one ...our remote and hairy ancestors had ... accident happened upon a partic...rly heavy-laden nut tree, he doubt...ly exhibited the same anxiety to ...le his find, and to impress upon his ...vestigating companions that there ...as absolutely "nothing doing" in ...at particular "neck o' the woods." ...ut doubtless it didn't work then, and ... don't work now.

We do not in the least blame the ...entlemen now interested in furnish...g light and power to the city of ...ainesville for using every legitimate ...eans at their command to hold on to ...e rich bonanza they have struck. ...hey are only using good busines... ...nse and looking after their own in...rests. They have a good thing, and ...hey know it, and no sensible man can ...lame them for not wanting to turn it ...oose. The very best argument that can be advanced in favor of the contention that there is profit in municipal ownership of public utilities is the excited anxiety of private concerns in control of them to make the people believe that there is none.

We have neither time nor space at our command in which to unravel the tangle of sophistry and mis-statements contained in these two articles; but we do desire to call the attention of the people of Gainesville to some plain facts in regard to this subject.

1. In the first place, if the furnishing of a public utility is profitable to a private concern, it is profitable to a municipality. Is there any reason why an electric light plant that is earning big dividends for its stockholders should cease to yield a profit simply because of a change of ownership? Cannot a municipality command the same talent and secure just as efficient service, and at as reasonable a rate, as can a private corporation? If a big stock company can manage a business to make it pay, there is no reason under the sun why a municipality may not do so. The business of all big stock companies, or corporations, is managed by a board of directors elected by the stockholders, each stockholder having votes in proportion to his amount of stock. Under municipal ownership we have identically the same machinery. Each voter is a stockholder and has a voice in choosing the directors or trustees who are to manage the business. And there is this advantage about a municipal stock company: One stockholder has just as much voice to the management of the business as another, and the day laborer is here placed on a par with the millionaire.

2. To show that municipal ownership differs in no respect whatever from private ownership, so far as the fundamental principles of business are concerned, let us suppose that all the voters of the city of Gainesville should form themselves into a private stock company, each subscribing for an equal share of the stock, elect a board of directors and buy out the electric light plant. Now is there any reason to suppose that under this new management the plant would cease to yield a profit? And yet in what respect would this stock company differ from municipal ownership? The business would in both cases be owned and controlled by the whole people. The only difference in the business before and after the change in ownership would be that whereas now a few men get all the profits, under the management of the new company, made up of the entire citizenship of this city, every citizen would share in the profits

But "Tax-Payer"—(tax-gather would have been a better name)—says the city has no right to go into business in opposition to the business of one of its citizens. Let us see. Have, say ten of the citizens of Gainesville, a right to form themselves into a stock company, erect an electric light plant and enter into competition with the present plant? Even "Tax-Payer" would say they had. If ten have the right to do so, would it be wrong for fifty—for a hundred? Would the number of men in the new company in any way affect their right to do business? Municipal ownership is nothing in the world but a joint stock company made of the whole, instead of a mere fraction, of the citizenship of a town or city. These are plain facts that plain people can understand.

We have spoken of the "profits" in which every citizen under municipal ownership would share. Some one may ask, what are those profits, and in what way would the people share in the profits? The answer is simple and plain. Let us take the question of electric lighting. It would cost the city no more to carry on the business than it does the company now furnishing light. If the city should furnish light at the same price as this company is now doing, it would make the same profit. That this company is making money goes without saying. They are not in the business for their health. They are making big money, and the people are paying it. This profit would be amply sufficient to pay off the entire issue of bonds at maturity, including interest. The city would then have a paid up property that would yield an income almost if not quite sufficient to defray all municipal expenses, improvements, etc., and do away with the necessity for taxation. There are cities, both in Europe and America, where this is being done today. In this way, as well as in the increased value of his property, every tax-payer would share directly in the profits; the advantage to the tax-payer would lie in the cheaper price at which the utilities would be furnished, as the municipality would be satisfied with a smaller per cent profit than are private corporations.

The city owns its own waterworks, and finds it profitable. If a private concern can furnish electricity to the city and make a profit on it, the city can save this profit by having its own plant. If the private concern was not making big money it would not be so worried about this municipal ownership business.

The biggest tax the people of Gainesville are paying today is paid to the Gas and Electric Light Co. The people of a city ought not to be at the mercy of a private corporation for their light and water. With municipal ownership they have these necessities in their own hands and get them at cost.

That hundreds of cities are now owning their own light, power and water plants and finding it profitable is a fact that cannot be disputed, and this fact is an answer to all the arguments of the opposition. You can't argue against a plain fact.

Gainesville now has a chance to strike from her limbs the last shackle, and to start unimpeded in the race for prosperity.

When Paul was preaching against idolatry at Ephesus it was the silversmith Demetrius, who had a big fat job in making and selling golden images of the goddess Diana, that raised the big uproar. When you read of or hear a man making a big fuss about municipal ownership, you may set it down as true, nine cases out of ten, that he is either personally interested in opposing it or is paid to talk by those who are. W. R. THOMAS.

PORTO RICO IS A COMING COUNTRY

THE CROPS ARE DIVERSIFIED

Soil Especially Adapted to the Growing of Sugar-Cane, Coffee and Tobacco, and Planters are Turning Attention to Cotton.

Among the visitors to this city Saturday was Oliver Shaw, formerly of Alachua but for the past few years a resident of Porto Rico, where he holds a responsible government position.

Mr. Shaw, who was born and reared near Alachua, this county, is now on a visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Shaw, at that place. In 1898, during the Spanish-American War, he joined the brigadier quartermaster's department and went to Porto Rico. He became infatuated with the country, and at the close of the war decided to remain there. Having won distinction in the United States Army and showing proficiency, he was given a position with the civil government, educational department, with headquarters at San Juan, the capitol.

"Porto Rico is a fine country," remarked Mr. Shaw, who is very enthusiastic over the prospects of the newly developed island. "There is no soil in the world superior for the cultivation of sugar-cane, tobacco and coffee, and all are important crops, with probably a little favor to sugar-cane. I recently visited a cane field twenty miles in length and from ten to twelve miles wide, with the plant growing from eight to twelve feet high. The coffee plant also grows and bears prolificly, while tobacco thrives well, and hundreds of thousands of pounds are harvested every year."

Mr. Shaw states that the Sea Island cotton industry is becoming important on the island now, and many planters are turning their attention to this plant, several thousand bales having been ginned this season.

THE SIXTEENTH SATURDAY.

Gainesville Section Was Visited by a Heavy Rain on This Day.

The Sun, in its issue of Friday, stated that if rain should come on Saturday it would be the sixteenth consecutive Saturday of rainfall in this section.

Well, it rained, and it rained good and hard, being one of the severest of the period of four months' almost constant bad weather. The water fell in torrents, and for a time it became necessary to almost suspend progress upon the thoroughfares, the umbrellas even proving inadequate to protect pedestrians.

The people of this section had rain enough three months ago and many branches of business have been retarded more or less.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Never Suspect it.

How To Find Out.

Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What To Do.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes.

You may have a sample bottle and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention this paper and don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y.

ALFALFA IS PROLIFIC.

T. B. Lanier of Tavares, who has been in the city for the past two days, brought from the farm of Judge P. B. Weaver, who resides near Leesburg, a sample of alfalfa, which is regarded as one of the best and most nutritious stock feeds that can be produced. The sample in question is twenty inches high and came from the seventh cutting from the same sowing from ordinary pine land.

Mr. Lanier states that many of the farmers of Lake county are turning their attention to alfalfa as a stock feed for two reasons—first, prolific and continued yield with original planting, and second for the superior nutritious qualities of the weed, which is similar in this respect to the velvet bean. It has been demonstrated that this weed will harvest four tons to the acre each cutting on ordinary land.

Parties interested may secure further information regarding this forage by writing to Mr. Lanier at Tavares or Judge P. B. Weaver of Leesburg.

LITTLE BOY HELD FOR RANSOM.

"Black Hand" Demands $500 or They Will Kill the Prisoner.

New York, Sept. 29.—Antoine Marenein, the 6-year-old son of Frank Marenein, a Brooklyn contractor, has been missing since last Sunday, and his father believes he has been kidnaped to secure a ransom by the "black hand" methods.

Two weeks ago the father began to receive letters demanding $500 on pain of abduction of a member of his family. Since the boy has disappeared he has received four others offering to return the boy if $500 is paid. In one letter a threat is made to "return the boy in a box," if the money is not paid.

An odd coincidence to which the police give some attention was the fact that Marenein and a boy cousin of Brooklyn who was kidnaped several months ago and that Salvatore Mannino, the uncle of the boy, and who returned him to his parents, cannot be found by the police.

Doctors Said He Would Not Live.

Peter Fry, Woodruff, Pa., writes: "After doctoring for two years with the best physicians in Waynesburg, and still getting worse, the doctors advised me if I had any business to attend to I had better attend to it at once, as I could not possibly live another month as there was no cure for me. Foley's Kidney Cure was recommended to me by a friend, and I immediately sent my son to the store for it, and after taking three bottles I began to get better, and continued to improve until I was entirely well." Illinois Bank Robbed.

Cairo, Ill., Sept. 29.—Burglars early today entered the private bank of C. P. Burnett & Sons, at Eldorado, Ill., wrecked the vault and carried off between $8,000 and $10,000 in currency and gold. Many shots were exchanged between the burglars and the citizens, but owing to the darkness, none of the shots took effect. Bloodhounds have been put on the trail of the burglars.

A Judicious Inquiry.

A well known traveling man who visits the drug trade says he has often heard druggists inquire of customers who asked for a cough medicine, whether it was wanted for a child or an adult, and if for a child they almost invariably recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The reason for this is that they know there is no danger from it and that it always cures. There is not the least danger in giving it, and for coughs, colds and croup it is unsurpassed. For sale by all druggists.

How much wiser to put the care of your eyes in the hands of such renowned eye specialists as Dr. E. H. Armstrong and staff of Jacksonville—people who have been located in this State for years, and who are going to make regular quarterly tours throughout the entire State for the benefit of their patients—than to place your case in the hands of some traveling fakir with a New York or other fictitious address. We are sure that the people of Gainesville will appreciate this fact and give Dr. Armstrong their patronage. He will be at the Brown House on October 8th and 9th. Dr. Armstrong and staff will visit Hawthorn on October 10th.

The funeral will be held at 10 o'clock this morning, Rev. Francis H. Craighill of Holy Trinity Episcopal Church, this city, conducting the ceremonies.

Deceased was an uncle of J. B. Lutterloh, well known in Gainesville. Sympathy is extended to surviving relatives.
